

I oppose loosening the rules designed to promote and protect diversity of media ownership. These rules were adopted to ensure that the public would receive a diverse range of viewpoints from the media, and not simply the opinions of a handful of media conglomerates.

Our democracy is in deep danger from the lack of full discussion in the media of the important issues of the day. Further limitation of free speech by relaxation of the already inadequate FCC rules is a serious threat to the viability of this republic.